

Sara Royer

VP of Finance & Administration

Sara Royer joined Torc in 2018, bringing more than 15 years of financial and operational leadership experience. Sara has spent her career building and expanding companies in various industries such as aviation, naval shipbuilding, Department of Defense innovators, tech startup, and not-for-profit organizations. Throughout her career she has focused on building strong business foundations, automating, and streamlining processes, implementing financial and human capital systems, and recruiting and training top talent.

She understands the complexities working within regulated industries, setting up the financial framework including accounting, tax, and finance, as well as secure IT systems, to maximize efficiencies while complying with rigorous regulations. She gained experience with government relations early in her career helping to secure federal appropriations as well as government contracts.

At Torc, Sara is focused on supporting the transformation of the company into a global powerhouse in the autonomous driving space. “I believe my experience coupled with my understanding of the importance of the intersection between people, process and technology support Torc’s mission and build a strong and lasting foundation for growth.”

Sara holds a B.A. in Business Administration (emphasis in accounting) as well as bachelor’s degrees in Psychology and Criminology from the University of South Florida. Sara is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).
